General Description of Ricoh Cup Women's "Ouza" Shogi Championship

1. Its position in Ladies Professional major titles

Women's "Ouza", sponsored by Ricoh, is one of the 6 most prestigious women's major titles in Japan. That are: Women's "Ouza", "Jo-ou", Women's "Meijin", Women's "Ou-i", Women's "Oushou", and "Kurashiki-Touka". All titles are currently owned by Ladies Professional players and Shorei-kai members of the Japan Shogi Association. The winner's prize money of Women's "Ouza" is 5 million yen, one of the highest in all 6 major titles. Thus, Women's "Ouza" is considered to be the highest and most important title in the Ladies Professional world.

2. Its History

Women's "Ouza" was launched in 2011 by the sponsor Ricoh and the Japan Shogi Association. It started with its epoch-making concept of a "Fully Open" tournament, where literally all women have chance to participate, deciding the "strongest woman" in the world. Aiming for the globalization of shogi, the sponsor established a way for overseas players to join the tournament for the first time in the history of shogi.

The final title match (5-game match) players and the winners until 2014

	Winner	Opponent
1 st term (2011)	Momoko Kato	Ichiyo Shimizu
2 nd term (2012)	Momoko Kato	Sayuri Honda
3 rd term (2013)	Kana Satomi	Momoko Kato
4 th term (2014)	Momoko Kato	Tomoka Nishiyama

Women's "Ouza" is currently held by Momoko Kato and challenged by Sae Itoh. All players in the 6th term will be competing for the right to be the challenger to the winner of the two.

Momoko Kato, Women's Double Crown, holding the Women's "Ouza" and "Jo-ou" titles.

3. Tournament system

Policy against software-assisted play in the Online Preliminaries

All participants are requested to fully understand the following points, and that any attempt of software-assisted or any other dishonest cheating will not be tolerated.

- The importance of the tournament and the representative's responsibility
  - The tournament is highly prestigious as described above.
  - The Online Preliminaries tournament is realized by the sponsor's kind generosity and the efforts by all related parties. Further continuation of such chances for overseas players will totally depend on the outcome of this tournament.
  - The winner's game in the 1st Qualify will be watched by media and Japanese fans, attention being also paid to her past kifu in the Online Preliminaries.
  - Each player represents her country and its national organization, being responsible for their credibility
- Any attempt of cheating is easily detectable
  - All kifu will be examined by the professional referee, capable of detecting any inconsistency in types of moves and player's strength
  - All kifu will be analyzed with various shogi engines for calculating the move-matching percentage.
- If any attempt is confirmed, the player is disqualified and loses all access to the following tournaments. The organization that recommended the player may also receive a penalty of limitation in recommending players in the following tournaments.
